How to Order Custom Designs

STEP 1 ART FILE

Order exclusive custom designs for your store. Provide vector art at 300 dpi and we will create proofs. If you do not have art files, describe your dream image and we will make it happen.

STEP 2 ENJOY!

Enjoy NO art or setup-fees. Custom products will be assigned custom image numbers and sold only to you.

Mindset Marketing Optimizes Tangico Sell-Through

Mindset Marketing and smart buying changes your customer's mindset from "IF" they'll buy to "WHICH" they'll buy. Order complete funny and/or hometown collections. Combining funny and hometown images in one display decreases sell-through.

SAVE TIME, let your rep pick stock images. For custom products, you'll see a pre-production proof for approval.

NEW ENGLAND ★ CLAM CHOWDER ★

Ingredients

- 4 center-cut bacon strips
- 2 celery ribs, chopped
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 3 small potatoes, peeled and cubed
- 1 cup water
- 1 bottle (8 ounces) clam juice
- 3 teaspoons chicken bouillon granules
- 1/4 teaspoon white pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1/3 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 cups half-and-half, divided
- 2 cans (6-1/2 ounces each) chopped clams, undrained

Directions

In a Dutch oven, cook bacon over medium heat until crisp. Remove to paper towels to drain; set aside. Sauté celery and onion in the drippings until tender. Add garlic; cook 1 minute longer. Stir in the potatoes, water, clam juice, bouillon, pepper and thyme. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat; simmer, uncovered, for 15-20 minutes or until potatoes are tender.

In a small bowl, combine flour and 1 cup half-and-half until smooth. Gradually stir into soup. Bring to a boil; cook and stir for 1-2 minutes or until thickened.

Stir in clams and remaining half-and-half; heat through (do not boil). Crumble the cooked bacon; sprinkle over each serving.

I don't get drunk, I get AWESOME.

827

I have a feeling my "CHECK LIVER" light might come on soon.

828

I'm outdoorsy, I like drinking on patios.
