ABOUT US

47 years ago, a family recipe was shared from one generation to another. Granny Moses taught a 5-year-old little Texas girl named Jenny to make a delicious treat that she had eaten her entire life. Year after year, holiday after holiday, Jenny slowly mastered and refined these amazing desserts. Family and friends couldn't say anything but "Yes, Please!" when she offered these gourmet treats.

Jenny's college roommate, a fellow Texan and famous sweet tooth, Cathryn, happily taste-tested batches and batches of Jenny's tasty treats. And In return, Jenny was always willing to taste Cathryn's pumpkin and banana nut bread batches made from her mother's recipes, which she refined and baked frequently.

Theirs is really the story of two best friends and single moms who wanted to pass on their family traditions to their band of 5 children. Now they want to share their treats beyond their families.

Yes, Please! Treats hosts a varied array of elevated gourmet treats perfect for appreciation gifts, dessert trays, charcuterie boards, daily tid bits and more.
